FUNCTION

Only food that is provided by The Red Kitchen will be prepared for any function

A compulsory Compost Fee of $80 is charged for each serviced function, involving our trained staff in the collection and segregation of all compostable waste produced at the function. The compostable waste is removed by us and transformed into compost at a local chemical free garden facility. Long distance venues incur $120 compost fee.

Hire of equipment can be organised by TRK on behalf of client at no extra charge, and is advised at the discretion of TRK for efficient execution of function.

Any breakages, damage or loss of hire equipment will be charged to the client; replacement of broken or missing glassware is charged at $5 per item.

Whilst all considerations are made when quoting staff hours, delays can occur due to no fault of TRK, in such instances the client is liable to pay the overtime for each staff member as per quoted rate. After 10pm all staff rates increase by 10% up until midnight, after which higher rates are applicable.

It is the responsibility of the client to advise TRK of any dietary requirements and/or allergies i.e. Gluten Free / Peanut Allergy

I the clienthave read and fully understand my responsibilities in regards to the above terms and conditions.
